

An absolute classic masterpiece in both style and layout, this home has it all and it's all in a generous scale. A kitchen is the hub of all entertaining and this home does not disappoint. A super sized scullery with sink, an indoor/outdoor bar bench and a large island to hold the family and dining apart as separate spaces. Double living can be turned into one large living room with its multi stacking interior doors. All bedrooms are private and generous in size and storage capacity. Extra features that are unique to this home is the central office space which has natural light and ventilation from above, the large library at the quiet end of the home and the large garage with overhead storage space via a ceiling ladder. This home in no way will disappoint and it's all waiting to be yours.
